Office ofclaims, for property lost, captured or destroyed rshi'st in the military service of the United States, during the late war.

WASHINGTON, June S. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Pursuant to the act of the U. States, passed the 9th of April last, entitled " An act to authere is the payment for property lost, cap-tured or destroyed while in the military ser-vice of the United States, and for other pur-poses," that all claims provided for by the said act, must be presented at this office on or before the ninth day of April, in the year 1818; as if not presented within that period, they cannot be received, examined and decided on at this office.

First class of cases

The claims provided for by the said act are, first, "Any volunteer or drafted militiamun, whether of cavalry, mounted riflemen, or in-Santry, who in the late war between the United States and Great Britain, has sustained damage by the loss of any borse which was killed in battle, or which has died in consequence of a wound therein received, or in consequence of failure on the part of the United States to furnish such horse with sufficient forage while in the service of the United States, shall be allowed and paid the value of such horse." This provision comprehends three descrip-

1st. An horse killed in battle.

2d. An horse dying in consequence of a wound received in battle.

3d. An horse dying in consequence of not being furnished with sufficient forage by the

To substantiate a claim of either description,

1st. The order of the government, authorising the employment of the corps to which the original claimants belonged, or the subsequent acceptance of such corps, or appre-bation of its employment must be produced.

2d. The certificate of the officer, or sur viving officer, commanding the claimant at the time of the accident on which the claim is founded, which certificate, if not given while the officer was in the service of the U. States, must be sworn to; and in every case it must, if practicable, state the then value of the horse so killed or dying. Before any other evidence will be received, the claimant must make oath that it is not in his power to procure that which is above specified; and that the evidence which he shall procure in lieu thereof, is the best which he is able to obtain. In every case the evidence must be on oath, and the value of the horse so killed or dying ascertained. All evidence offered must be taken and authenticated in the manner here-inafter directed, and in all these cases the claimant must declare on oath, that he has not received another horse from any officer or agent of the government in lieu of the one

Second class of cases.

"Any person, whether of cavalry or mounted riffemen, or volunteers, who in the late war aforesaid, has sustained damage by the loss of an horse in consequence of the owner thereof being dismounted, or separated and detached from the same by order of the com manding officer, or in consequence of the ri-der being killed or wounded in battle, shall be allowed and paid the value of such horse at the time he was received into the pub-lic service." This class comprehends two descriptions of cases.

1st. When the owner has been dismounted or separated from and detached from such borse by order of the commanding officer. When the rider has been killed or wounded in battle, and the horse lost in consequence thereof. The same evidence, in all respects, which is required in the first class of cases will be required in this.

Third class of cases.

" Any person who, in the late war aforesaid. has sustained damage by the loss, capture o destruction by an enemy of any horse, mule, or waggon, cart, boat, sleigh or harness, while such property was employed in the military service of the United States, either by impressment or by contract, except in cases ing, that fact also must be stated on oath by where the risk to which the property would him be exposed, was agreed to be incurred by the owner, if it shall appear that such loss, capture or destruction was without any fault or and more especially apply to claims which negligence of the owner; and any person dur- shall not exceed in amount two hundred dolthe time aforesaid, who has sustained damage by the death of such horse, mule, or to take testimony; but in these cases, as far in consequence of failure on the part of the united States to furnish sufficient forage evidence will be observed. while in the service aforesaid, shall be allowed and paid the value thereof."

gaged by contract, in the military service of out of their private funds, or the value there the United States, being either an horse, a of received from them in due course of law mule, an ox, waggon, cart, boat, sleigh, or harness, excepting articles for which the owners had agreed to run all risks, or which the owners had agreed to run all risks, or wall were lost or destroyed by the fault or negli- such payment or recovery had not been made

In the first of these cases, the claimant must all claims against such officers or agents of roduce the certificate, of the officer or agent the United States, on account of such taking of the United States who impressed or con-or impressment.

In every case, no claim will be paid but to of the officer, or surviving officer, under whose immediate command it was taken or destroyed same or, in case of his desth, his legal repre-

by an enemy. Such certificates, if such officers or agents at the time of giving them be not in the military service of the U. States, it is recommended to the parties interested, to must be sworn to and must positively state. The proposals will be received at not in the military service of the U. States, must be sworn to and must positively state that the property was not lost or destroyed through the fault or negligence of the owner, and that the owner did not agree to run all risks. Furthermore, the usual hire of the articles so impressed or contracted for in the country in which they were employed must be seated.

It is recommended to the parties interested, to have their powers executed in due form.

All evidence offered must be sworn to, except the certificates of the office of the Secretary for the Department of War, until the 31st day of October next, inclusive, for the supply of all rations that may be required for the use of the United States, or of the States before some from the 1st day of June, 1817, inclusive to the 1st day of June, 1818, within the States, or chief magistrate of any city, town or both the parties interested, to have their powers executed in due form.

All evidence offered must be sworn to, except the certificates of the office of the Secretary for the Department of War, until the 31st day of October next, inclusive, for the supply of all rations that may be required for the use of the United States, or of the States or Territories of the United States, or mayor the same of the United States

Fourth class of cases.

"Any person who, during the late war, has acted in the military service of the United States, as a volunteer or drafted militiaman, and who has furnished himself with arms of accoutrements, and has sustained loss by the capture or destruction of them, without any fault or negligence on his part, shall be alowed and paid the value thereof."
This class comprehends two cases.

1st. The loss of such arms or accoutrements by the enemy.

2d. The loss of the same articles in any other way, without the fault or negligence of

This provision does not include the cloathng of soldiers, or the cloathing and arms of officers, who, in all services, furnish at their own risk their own. The same evidence, in all respects, is required in this as in the first class, and moreover, that the loss did not happen from the fault or negligence of the Fifth class of cases.

"When any property has been impressed or taken, by public authority, for the use or sub-sistence of the army, during the late war, and the same shall have been destroyed, lost or consumed, the owner of such property shall be paid the value thereof, deducting therefrom the amount which has been paid, or may be claimed, for the use and risk of the same, while in the service aforesaid."

This provision relates to every species of property taken or impressed for the use and subsistence of the army, not comprehended in any of the preceding classes, and which shall have been in any manner destroyed, lost or consumed by the army, including in its scope all kinds of provisions, forage, fuel, articles for clothing, blankets, arms and ammunition, in fact, every thing for the use and equipment

In all these cases, the certificates of the Sixth and list class of cases.

"When any person, during the late war, has sustained damage by the destruction of his house or building by the enemy, while the same was occupied as a military deposit, under the authority of an officer or agent of the United States, he shall be allowed or paid the amount of such damage; provided it shall appear that such occupation was the cause of such destruction."

In this case the certificate of the officer or agent of the United States, under whose au thority any such house or building was occu-pied, must be furnished. Before any other vidence to this fact will be received, the claimant must make oath that it is not in his power to procure such certificate, and that the evidence which he shall offer in lieu thereof, is the best which he is able to obtain.

Furthermore, in all the cases submitted to this office, every claim must be accompanied by a statement on oath by every claiman, of all sums which he may have received, on account of such claim, from any officer, agent or department of the government of the United States, and where he has received noth-

P Patent Elastic Saddles.

A word to those who are fond of easy riding.

The complaint against hard and uneasy saddles, thich is for the most part a just and general one, and really a great grievance to those who have much is really a great grievance to those who have much riding to do, has caused me to turn my mind particularly to that subject, with a view if possible to remedy the evil—I can with confidence assure the public that I have accomplished it—I have projected a plan which is by means of strong and well tempered steel springs, so constructed as to support the saddle seat & give much greater ease to both rider & larger than suddles made it to generate the saddle seat. horse, than saddles made in the common way or any horse, than saddles made in the common way or any other that I have ever seen, can possibly do. The plan is entirely different from the English elastic saddles with spring bars of steel, whalebone, &c. and also from those with wire springs, and I conceive much superior to either, as the elasticity is greater, and the transport height put, out, of its overland form. much superior to either, as the clasticity is greater, and the tree not being put out of its original form, will not be subject to hurting horses on journeys, which is complained of in thesaddles with spring bars. A number of gentlemen in this town and its vicinity, have those saddles nowsin use, and but one tentiment I believe exists among them in favour outheir seperiority—The invention is equally as applicable to ladies saddles as to gentlemens. Any person desirous of purchaling those easy saddles, is at liberty first to make trial of one and judge of their ease for themselves. In point of durability I will warrant them equal to any other saddles, and superior to most.

I have obtained a Patent from the United States for this invention, and am ready to dispose of patent rights to Saddlers, for other counties or states—If required, I will furnish a tree with springs ready fixed and strained, which, may serve as a model to work by, and will give the necessary instructions.

THE TREASURY.

It will be recollected, that, before the last sury submitted to the State Banks several propositions, in succession, with a view to enable the Treasury to transfer its funds from places. where they accumulated beyond the local de mand, to places where the local demand ex-ceeded the funds; with a view to equalize the exchange between the different states, and with an ulterior view to restore the lawful national The State Banks, in general, declined acting upon the propositions, without of-fering in any instance, an efficient substitute, for the accomplishment of objects so important to them, as well as to the government, and to the people of the United States.

The subject, under these circumstances, was presented for the consideration of Congress, and the powers of the Legislature have been put in motion, to relieve the community from an indefinite continuance of the evils, which were produced by the suspension of payments in coin, at the principal State Banks. The establishment of a National Bank, and a Resolutablishment of a National Balla, and a Rasolition, which provides for collecting the public revenue in the lawful currency of the United States, after the 20th of February, 1817, are preparatory, but decisive measures. That they preparatory, but decisive measures. That they will be enforced and strengthened by Congress, cannot be doubted by any man who is not pre-pared to doubt the wisdom, policy and energy of the government. It must, therefore, be an error fatal, probably, to many of the State Banks (against which they are anxiously admonished) to indulge a hope, that the next session will retract, or relax the measures of the It is believed, that not only the National Legislature, but the Legislature of every State in the Union must take a stand in opposition to

The effects of such preparations have not, however, become visible: and an apprehension has at length been excited in the pu that the temptation of profit, according to the present irregular course of banking, is too great, to admit of a voluntary return to the legitimate system of banking, upon the basis of a metallic capital.

Under these circumstances, it will not be doubted by any candid and intelligent citizen, that a simultaneous and uniform movement of the State Banks would, at this period, be successful, in the revival of the public confidence, and the restoration of the lawful currency of the United States. It is somewhat singular, that so many of the distinguished French heroes should have so lately fallen, by disease or suicide—even the bloody wars in which they acquired so much fame, were not so destructive to them. But it may be quite as convenient—perhaps more so—for the Bourbons to get them out of the way by poison or the dagger, as by public execution. Neither ancient nor modern despots ever had much scruple on this score.

"The most agreeable circumstance to an American, in travelling in this country, is the high standing of our character in Europe since the war and the Algerine affair. The only in nvenience is the chance of being mistaken for Englishmen, who are universally disliked. I expected this in France, but I am surprised to learn that the feeling is still stronger in Holland and Belgium. So marked is the difference of feeling towards us and the English on the continent, that English travellers have even found it expedient to assume our cockade and

Few annual suns have rolled away since the glorious revolution, which terminated in our Independence, and in the establishment of civil and religious freedom. Scarce had the sages who planned, and the soldiers who atchieved it, been gathered to the tombs of their fathers, and before the grass had grown green on their graves -nay while some of them still lived to witness the degradation of their degenerate sons-the fell spirit which disturbed the repose of Eden already plotted the destruction of Religious Freedom, and on its ruin the establishment of Hierarchy despotic and cruel. One religious sect, more aspiring, artful and zealous than the others, imperceptibly extended its influence to our literary institutions Schools, academies, and some colleges, were soon brought under its control; and its influence was seen, in fact, in our political assemblies. The republican troops commanded by Brig Gen. LONDON, June 3.

Since our last, the Paris Papers of Thursday have arrived; and this morning last, the hon. PAUL HAMILTON, late Secretary we received those of Friday. Another of the Navy of the United States.

French general (Gruyer) had been sentenced to be shot for the rebellion of WAR DEPARTMEN March, 1815, and the ridiculous farce of trying Marshall Grouchy, who is absent, pefore the Tribunals, accused of having stolen about a thousand weight of junpowder from one of the government Magazines, and sold it to Ruggieri, the fire worker. The carriage which conveyed it having been stopped at Montmatre on the 28th ult. gave rise to a great number of suppositions and commentaries. The quantity of powder was greatly magnified; and the whole was said to have been contrived by conspirators against the State. There is one important paragraph in these papers under the head of Vienna, which commences the report that the Russian Army is to be kept upon the war

The king of France has very properly distributed the forfeited property of the rebellious family of Bonaparte among the soldiers and officers who had lost the pensions earned by their wounds in battle, and has in this respect made no distinction between the royalists of La Vendee and those who had served under Bonaparte prior to the first restoration:

From the Paris Journals we have this day made some farther extracts. A misunderstanding has arisen between the Swedish Court and the Porte. To the approaching diet at Frankfort is to be referred a dispute between Austria and Sardinia, respecting the fortresses in Italy. These subjects, together with the disputes in Wirtemburg and Baden, which will come before the same Diet, will afford opportunities for the mediation of Russia and the other great powers.

"We are concerned to state,' says the Bath paper of this morning, 'that a disposition to tumult exhibited itself among the lower classes at Yeovil on Tuesday, but, by the temperate conduct of the principal inhabitants, it was suppressed without any material damage being done."

WAR DEPARTMENT.

The act of Congress of the 26th of April 1816, having provided that where any Military Land Warrants shall be lost or destroyed, upon is going on.
Several individuals have been carried the proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, a Patent shall issue in the same manner as if the Warrant was produced; and when the same proof shall be produced, that any Soldier of the Regular Army has lost his Discharge and Certificate of faithful services, the Secretary of War shall cause papers to be furnished such Soldier as may entitle him to his Land Warrant and Patent. To enable all persons comprehended by the provisions of the aid act, to avail themselves of the relief intended to be granted, the Secretary of the Depart-ment of War has directed, that in case of Military Land Warrants, which have been lost or destroyed, the party shall, upon oath in writing, state the time, place and manner of such loss or destruction, the date and number of the Warrant, and the company and regiment to which the Soldier belonged and the time of his discharge; and also the state, county and township in which he resides. The oaths must be made before an officer duly qualified to administer it, and the official character and signature of such officer must be certified by the Clerk of the County, the Mayor of the City, or by such other officer as is required by the laws and usages of the state where it is made. Every application will be advertised one month in the papers of the state where the applicant resides, before any decision will be made in the case by the Secretary of the Department. Evidence in corroboration of that of the party, will be required, where it is not satisfactorily shewn to be out of his power to produce it. In the case of lost DISCHARGES, the depo sition, in addition to the time, place and man-ner of the loss or destruction of the DIS-CHARGE, must set forth, the time and place of enlistment, the company and regiment to which the Soldier belonged at the time of his discharge the date of the discharge, and the rank and mame of the officer who signed it:—it must also state whether the discharge contained the certificate of faithful service, required by law, or the words "HONORABLY DISCHARGED. or words of that import. The deposition of disinterested witness, as to the service and dis charge of the applicant, is required in corrobo ration of his own testimony. not produced, the reason of its non-production must be satisfactorily stated. The testimon must be authenticated in the manner prescrib ed in case of the lost Warrants. Where the precise dates or numbers cannot be stated, they may be stated to the best of the recollection of the witnesses, whose credibility the Ma gistrate, who takes the evidence, must certify in the usual form.

Mr. Sheridan, meeting Miss Linley, afterwards Mrs. Sheridan, at the entrance of a grotto, in the vicinity of Bath, in England, took the liberty of offering her some advice; with which apprehending she was displeased, he left the following lines in the grotto the next day:

Uncourse is this moss cover'd grotto of stone And damp is the shade of this dew dropping tree,
Yet I this rude grotto with rapture will own, And, willow, thy damps are refreshing to me.

For this is the grotto where Delia reclin'd, As late I in secret her confidence sought;
And this is the tree kept her safe from the wind, As, blushing she heard the grave lesson I taught.
